

Timeline from protocol submission to Board approval

In general, Quorum schedules the protocol to the next available Board meeting. The Board reviews protocols every day of the week. Submissions are typically due one week before the meeting date. For example, Quorum will schedule a submission received Thursday to next Thursday's meeting. The Board reviews Canadian protocol submissions at Wednesday and Friday meetings.

Board-requested consent form modifications are emailed to the study contact.